Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/17

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 1: Identify Yourself

8. How you will pay the fee ☐ I will pay the entire fee when I file my petition. Please check with the clerk's office in your local court for more details about how you may pay. Typically, if you are paying the fee yourself, you may pay with cash, cashier's check, or money order. If your attorney is submitting your payment on your behalf, your attorney may pay with a credit card or check with a pre-printed address.
- ☒ I need to pay the fee in installments. If you choose this option, sign and attach the Application for Individuals to Pay The Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 103A).
- ☐ I request that my fee be waived (You may request this option only if you are filing for Chapter 7. By law, a judge may, but is not required to, waive your fee, and may do so only if your income is less than 150% of the official poverty line that applies to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments). If you choose this option, you must fill out the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 103B) and file it with your petition.

Part 3: Report About Any Businesses You Own as a Sole Proprietor

12. Are you a sole proprietor of any full- or part-time business?

☒ No. Go to Part 4.

☐ Yes. Name and location of business

A sole proprietorship is a business you operate as an individual, and is not a separate legal entity such as a corporation, partnership, or LLC.

If you have more than one sole proprietorship, use a separate sheet and attach it to this petition.

Name of business, if any

Number, Street, City, State & ZIP Code

Check the appropriate box to describe your business:

- ☐ Health Care Business (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(27A))
- ☐ Single Asset Real Estate (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(51B))
- ☐ Stockbroker (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(53A))
- ☐ Commodity Broker (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(6))
- ☐ None of the above

13. Are you filing under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and are you a small business debtor?

For a definition of small business debtor, see 11 U.S.C. § 101(51D).

If you are filing under Chapter 11, the court must know whether you are a small business debtor so that it can set appropriate deadlines. If you indicate that you are a small business debtor, you must attach your most recent balance sheet, statement of operations, cash-flow statement, and federal income tax return or if any of these documents do not exist, follow the procedure in 11 U.S.C. 1116(1)(B).

☒ No. I am not filing under Chapter 11.

☐ No. I am filing under Chapter 11, but I am NOT a small business debtor according to the definition in the Bankruptcy Code.

☐ Yes. I am filing under Chapter 11 and I am a small business debtor according to the definition in the Bankruptcy Code.

Part 4: Report if You Own or Have Any Hazardous Property or Any Property That Needs Immediate Attention

14. Do you own or have any property that poses or is alleged to pose a threat of imminent and identifiable hazard to public health or safety? Or do you own any property that needs immediate attention?

☒ No.

☐ Yes. What is the hazard? _____

If immediate attention is needed, why is it needed? _____

For example, do you own perishable goods, or livestock that must be fed, or a building that needs urgent repairs?

Where is the property? _____

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

For you

I have examined this petition, and I declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct.

If I have chosen to file under Chapter 7, I am aware that I may proceed, if eligible, under Chapter 7, 11, 12, or 13 of title 11, United States Code. I understand the relief available under each chapter, and I choose to proceed under Chapter 7.

If no attorney represents me and I did not pay or agree to pay someone who is not an attorney to help me fill out this document, I have obtained and read the notice required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b).

I request relief in accordance with the chapter of title 11, United States Code, specified in this petition.

I understand making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Official Form 106CSchedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

- ☒ You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)
- ☐ You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)

2. For any property you list on Schedule A/B that you claim as exempt, fill in the information below.

Schedule E/F: Creditors Who Have Unsecured Claims

Be as complete and accurate as possible. Use Part 1 for creditors with PRIORITY claims and Part 2 for creditors with NONPRIORITY claims. List the other party to any executory contracts or unexpired leases that could result in a claim. Also list executory contracts on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) and on Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 106G). Do not include any creditors with partially secured claims that are listed in Schedule D: Creditors Who Have Claims Secured by Property. If more space is needed, copy the Part you need, fill it out, number the entries in the boxes on the left. Attach the Continuation Page to this page. If you have no information to report in a Part, do not file that Part. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 1: List All of Your PRIORITY Unsecured Claims

1. Do any creditors have priority unsecured claims against you?

- ☒ No. Go to Part 2.
☐ Yes.

Part 2: List All of Your NONPRIORITY Unsecured Claims

3. Do any creditors have nonpriority unsecured claims against you?

- ☐ No. You have nothing to report in this part. Submit this form to the court with your other schedules.
☒ Yes.

4. List all of your nonpriority unsecured claims in the alphabetical order of the creditor who holds each claim. If a creditor has more than one nonpriority unsecured claim, list the creditor separately for each claim. For each claim listed, identify what type of claim it is. Do not list claims already included in Part 1. If more than one creditor holds a particular claim, list the other creditors in Part 3. If you have more than three nonpriority unsecured claims fill out the Continuation Page of Part 2.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245	filing fee
$75	administrative fee
+	$15 trustee surcharge
$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

ATTORNEY CLIENT RETAINER AGREEMENT FOR CHAPTER 7 RELATED SERVICES

This Agreement is executed between AFFORDABLE LEGAL SERVICES, ("Firm" or "Attorney" meaning the law firm its staff and attorneys), and the undersigned ("Client"), whether one or more parties individually or jointly, (and collectively the "Parties"). In cases of joint representation of spouses, communication with one spouse will be deemed communication with both spouses. Attorney may disclose to both spouses any facts disclosed by either spouse.

Client has received a free consultation with no obligation to retain Attorney or to proceed to file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition ("petition for relief"). The Parties agree that any prior consultation time is now part of the legal services that have been performed and that any advice given at the initial consultation(s) is/was preliminary and based upon information provided by Client and facts available to Attorney at that time and Attorney's advice may change as the facts and circumstances are further analyzed, more facts discovered, or Client's circumstances or the laws change.

Client authorizes Attorney, at Attorney's sole discretion and at Attorney's expense, to hire other Attorneys to act in their behalf regarding attendance at 341 meetings, court appearances and/or bankruptcy hearings. More than one attorney and staff may work on this matter.

Now for and in consideration of the mutual promises and obligations exchanged herein under this Agreement, the Parties agree to as follows:

1. Retention of Attorney. Client retains and employs Attorney as Client's legal insolvency and bankruptcy counsel. The retainer is paid by Client to Attorney in order to ensure Attorney's commitment and availability during a specific time period to perform or provide legal services reasonably necessary to represent Client's interests, absent extraordinary circumstances, related to the specific subject matter as indicated in this Agreement.

2. Legal Representation. Client retains Attorney specifically, solely and exclusively for legal services to representing Client's legal interests in relation to a proposed filing under Chapter 7 of the USBC ("USBC"), as amended and effective October 17, 2005, known as the Bankruptcy Abuse and Consumer Protection Act ("BAPCPA"), and for no other matters or services ("Services"). Attorney accepts such representation pursuant to the specific written terms of this Agreement. Attorney's advice and analysis is based upon circumstances presented by Client at the initial consultation (which may not include full disclosure by Client), as well as current, local, state, and federal laws. It is expressly agreed and understood between the Parties that this Agreement is not contingent upon the filing of a petition for relief and Client has no obligation to proceed to file a Chapter 7, or any chapter of bankruptcy or any bankruptcy petition. Attorney assumes no responsibility for any changes in laws or of client's eligibility or qualification under any certain chapter of BAPCPA should client delay the filing by not paying quickly and as agreed, providing required documentation and information, timely cooperating and communicating with Attorney, any change in Client's circumstances, particularly the Client's current monthly income as defined by BAPCPA, does not substantially change prior to the filing of the petition for relief. Eligibility and qualification of Client may change before any proposed filing. Client must be eligible and qualified to file a petition under Chapter 7 of BAPCPA at the time of the filing of any proposed Chapter 7 petition for relief under this Agreement regardless of any qualification at the signing of this Agreement or the initial consultation.

3. Scope of Legal Services Defined. Attorney shall represent Client generally regarding Client's financial hardships and provide all legal services reasonably necessary to fully inform Client of requirements under Chapter 7 of BAPCPA. Attorney may represent, advise and perform legal services for the Client on matters related to and in connection with any filing of a Chapter 7 petition, schedules and related documents or such other services, or solutions, as may prove related and/or incidental thereto or as specified in this Agreement. Should Client proceed to have Attorney file a voluntary petition under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, Attorney may, with the assistance and cooperation of Client, its agents and employees, perform the following services as specified under the terms of this Agreement, including, but not limited to the following: (a) the initial consultation; (b) representation in a Chapter 7 filing; (c) review and preparation of documents necessary to file a Chapter 7 petition for relief and preparation and electronic filing of petition, schedules, all statements, statement of financial affairs, statement of intention, means test, supplemental local forms, creditor list, and other documents and pleadings as necessary; (d) preparation and attendance of Client at the initial section 341 meetings of creditors, and other proceedings where necessary, as determined by Attorney, related to the representation as described in this Agreement; (e) advise client as to the rights, duties, and responsibilities as a Chapter 7 debtor; (f) advise client in relation to available exemptions available under applicable law and in claiming exemptions that best serve the Client's interests; (g) assist Client in complying with all of the requirements imposed by the bankruptcy laws, the bankruptcy rules, or any local bankruptcy rules or otherwise; (h) review of any proposed redemption or reaffirmation agreements or to render Attorney's opinion on same, but attorney will not sign redemption or reaffirmation agreements; and (i) and case administration and monitoring.

4. Excluded Matters. This Agreement does not retain Attorney for any service(s) or matters not specified herein (except as required under BAPCPA, USBC or Rules, Local Rules of the US Bankruptcy Court or the presiding judge) and Attorney will NOT take any action outside of services described in this Agreement. Specifically, and without limitation, this agreement does not include representation in any other chapter of bankruptcy, or of any other person, entity or business that may be owned, affiliated or associated with by Client or Client's spouse or that either may have an interest in; any pending or future litigation, or legal proceedings (and clients are specifically advised to attend all relevant court hearings or proceedings unless advised otherwise in writing); reinstatement of dismissed or reopening of closed cases; any matter specifically declined under this agreement as "additional services"; any type of appeal(s); adversary complaints or proceedings; contested matters involving bankruptcy abuse or bankruptcy fraud matters, discharge-ability actions or objections; any post discharge litigation; any type of bankruptcy litigation. Attorney is not obligated to represent Client in any excluded matter absent Attorney's express consent and discretion to do so. Therefore, in the event Attorney asks Client to enter into a separate retainer agreement for any excluded matter(s), or specifically adversary related representation, Client will do so upon request and Attorney may require an additional retainer fee at that time as a condition of representation in any excluded matter, subject to the hourly rates of Attorney or flat fee, as determined by Attorney.

5. Additional Services. Legal services which are beyond those contemplated in the Retainer may be provided by Attorney and will result in additional legal fees due Attorney from Client. Attorney may require any said additional attorney fees to be paid in advance and prior to any such service being provided or completed. Such additional professional services not subject to this Agreement may include, but are not limited to, representing Client in: (a) rule 2004 examinations; (b) matters related to the enforcement, execution, imposition or defense of the Automatic Stay; (c) any appearance at any continued meeting of creditors due to Client's failure or refusal to comply with their obligations under the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, or the Local Rules of the Northern District of Illinois Bankruptcy Court, or any requests of the Standing trustee, the interim trustee, or the United States Trustee or Client's request to continue the meeting due to their inability to appear or other reasons, or attending additional creditors meetings; (d) motion work or court appearances not related to the ordinary course of representation; (e) reopening a Client's closed Chapter 7 for any reason including to submit post-filing proof of pre-discharge counseling (debtor education certificate and signed form B-23); or (f) any matter specifically excluded, not specifically itemized or described under this

CHAPTER 7 RETAINER AGREEMENT

Agreement that may arise and that would not be considered reasonably necessary under BAPCPA, the local rules of the US Bankruptcy Court, or the Illinois Code of Professional Conduct. For such additional services, Client will be charged at Attorneys hourly rates as listed in this Agreement with a one-hour minimum charge, plus any costs.

6. Garnishment, Wage Deduction or Citation. In the event Client has funds withheld by any third party pursuant to any garnishment, wage deduction, citation proceeding or the like, and a Court appearance is necessary in order to obtain the release of funds withheld pursuant to any such garnishment, wage deduction, citation proceeding or the like, Client agrees to pay Attorney additional attorney fees for the services to be rendered in this instance and said services will be considered additional services and specifically not be considered as part of this retainer agreement.

7. Judicial Liens. Client understands that filing bankruptcy does not automatically discharge or remove liens from any real estate. Client agrees that Attorney will not take any action to avoid (remove) any lien on real estate unless Client specifically authorizes the Attorney to do so in writing with a new and separate retainer agreement entered into and additional attorney fees may be requested upfront. Client agrees that the Attorney will rely on Client's statements concerning ownership of real property and any liens attached to Client's real property. Client agrees that no real estate title search will be conducted. Client agrees that Attorney will not conduct a public records search for lawsuits filed against Client or judgments granted against Client. Client must separately order and pay for a real estate title search, or public records search for lawsuits or judgments, if Client wishes to obtain one. Client agrees to hold Attorney harmless if Client later discovers liens, lawsuits or judgments against Client or against Client's real estate.

8. Client Obligations, Representations of Good Faith and to Attorney. Client will at all times to be truthful with Attorney, cooperate with Attorney, respond to Attorney's request timely, and keep Attorney informed of any developments, and current contact information and that Client will attend all scheduled court hearings (if told to do so by Attorney and Client will attend all scheduled meeting with Attorney as requested by Attorney in Attorney's office. Attorney will prepare the bankruptcy filing and associated documents based upon information supplied by Client and Attorney will rely upon this information as being true, accurate, complete and correct. Client agrees and affirms that they will attend the section 341 meeting of creditors ("Trustee Meeting") and that Client has not, and will not, given Attorney any false or misleading information, will not omit any information from Attorney now or in the future and has and will continue to provide Attorney with timely, complete and accurate information, all requested information, all requested documentation, questionnaires, intakes, and pertinent information, including full disclosure all financial information to Attorney promptly and as requested by Attorney and prior to the filing of any petition for relief. If false, incorrect or incomplete information is included, or information is omitted, it can cause Client additional effort and expense to remedy the error, may place the bankruptcy itself in jeopardy and could result in civil or criminal liability. It is vitally important that the information included in the bankruptcy schedules be complete and correct to avoid any problems. Client will review all documents filed as part of the bankruptcy case, and Client's signature on those documents signifies that Client has read them, understood them, and agrees with their contents. Client agrees to perform fully and conscientiously all the duties of a Debtor under the Bankruptcy Code, and shall timely, comply and communicate, with all reasonable requests for information or reports by the Bankruptcy Court, U.S. Trustee, any Creditor's Committee, and the Attorney. Client must preserve all records and documents related in any way to this matter, including all electronic documents and data. If Client should not act with absolute honesty and integrity with Attorney, or fails to fulfill its obligations, cooperate with or provide Attorney with complete and accurate information or if Client becomes delinquent in the payment of their bills, then the Attorneys may either decline to represent the Client or discontinue such representation immediately and without notice, and in either such case, the Clients agree not to object to the Attorneys' declination, discontinuation of their services or motion to withdraw from this matter without any refund of any earned fees. Upon the filing of a petition for relief Client, unless otherwise instructed by this office, Client must and will pay all taxes incurred after the date of filing (and file all necessary tax returns), and maintain any required insurance on real and personal property.

9. Asset and Liability (Creditor) Disclosure. It is Client's responsibility to disclose any ownership or interest in and prior ownership or interest in all assets, regardless of value or even if it does not show up on the consumer credit report or asset and lien search. Client may not "choose" what creditors or assets to include and must disclose any ownership or interest in, and prior ownership or interest in all assets, regardless of value, and must disclose ALL assets, ALL liabilities and ALL creditors, regardless of the amount and even if it does not show up on the consumer credit report or asset and lien search or Client thinks no one else knows about. This includes disclosing all bank and financial accounts to which Client is a signer regardless of Client's opinion that it is not Client's "account" or money. Client must disclose all Creditors, debts, liabilities and claims, regardless of amount, or the debt and Client may not omit any liability or potential creditor. This means they must include debts to friends, family members, "small" debts or debts that are not on the consumer credit reports, or debts they think no one else knows about, as well as all debts on student loans, state or federal taxes, property taxes, unsecured, secured debts, co-signor debts, joint debts, overpayment of government benefits and any other debts and liabilities. Client must provide Attorney with all current and FULL addresses and zip codes of creditors. If a creditor's address is incorrect, if a creditor is omitted, not listed, or if there are multiple addresses for a creditor and the wrong one is used that creditor will NOT be deemed to have proper notice of the case, will not be discharged, or subject to the automatic stay, and Client will remain liable for those debts and subject to creditor harassment and collection. If Client is not certain if they are liable on a debt they must list it for notice purposes only. If Client disputes a debt it must be listed and Attorney must be advised so it can properly be disclosed as a disputed debt. Any asset sold, transferred, encumbered or account closed the previous 12 months must be disclosed to Attorney and listed on Petition.

10. Prerequisite to Filing a Petition for Relief. No petition for relief will be filed until Attorney has completed its due diligence and further determines: (1) The eligibility and qualification of Client under BAPCPA to file a petition for relief at the time of the proposed filing; (2) All requested current documents and current information have been received, updated, reviewed and approved by Attorney who must determine if its all in proper order including valid credit counseling certificate; (3) Client has complied with all its prerequisites, duties and obligations under this Agreement; (4) Attorney is satisfied of a good faith filing by Client; and (5) All attorney fees associated with this Agreement, including all costs, due diligence expenses and all required filing fee associated with the filing of the petition having been paid to Attorney in full and no good and cleared funds before the expiration of the payment term, unless otherwise agreed to by Attorney in writing and in Attorney's sole discretion, whose agreement to do otherwise can be withheld for any reason. Lastly Client must review the petition and related documents and physically hand sign where appropriate and Attorney must have the legible hand signed pages before a petition will be filed as the hand signed pages will be filed with the court. Attorney may also request Client to sign online via doctype or another service and if so no petition will be filed until that is completed in addition to the hand signed pages.

11. Venue for Filing. This Agreement is subject to Client qualifying to file a petition for relief in the same U.S. District Court jurisdiction as defined by the USBC and rules, by permanently residing in, or maintaining the same domicile in which they are currently domiciled as of the date of this Agreement, and at the actual time of any filing of a petition for relief. In the event Venue changes before the filing of a petition for relief, for any reason, this Agreement will be deemed unenforceable per the terms of this Agreement.

12. Retainer. Client will pay Attorney a pre-petition, pre-filing retainer in the total amount that is specified in this Agreement, prior to the filing of any petition for relief (the "Retainer"), and in the following manner: (1) upon a pre-petition, pre-filing initial retainer; and if necessary (2) an additional pre-petition pre-filing retainers or retainer payments due prior to the filing of any petition for relief. The type, definition and classification of each retainer are specifically defined in this Agreement. Client may not pay attorney fees or expense by credit card but may use a debit card.

INITIALS

13. Type, Definition and Classification of Retainer. All retainers described herein, including all future retainer payments, are expressly agreed to be "advance payment retainers" as described in In re Production Associates, Ltd., 264 B.R. 180 (Bankr. N.D.Ill. 2001) and Dowling v. Chicago Options Associates, Inc., 2007 WL 1288279 (Ill.) and Client expressly agrees to this type of retainer as a condition of Attorney accepting representation. No funds will be held in any type of attorney trust fund account as the Attorneys will commingle the retainer and any future retainer(s) payments immediately upon receipt with their general funds being obligated only to refund an amount equal to the unearned portion thereof, if any (and not the actual retainer funds themselves), promptly after the termination or conclusion of the Attorneys' services or of this Agreement. Client maintains a contract right to the performance due from Attorney per this Agreement, but that does not give rise to any property right in any specific payments or compensation paid Attorney and Attorney is not holding any funds on behalf of Client, now or in the future, related to the specified retainer or any payments no Attorney compensation. Ordinarily, Clients have the option to request that the retainer be considered a "security retainer" where Clients continue to have an interest in the funds, but Clients recognize and agree that the Attorneys would not undertake the representation on that basis. The Attorneys are obligated by the Dowling case to advise Clients of the reason they would decline to represent Clients on a security retainer basis, and that reason is the Attorneys do not desire even potentially to compete with the creditors of the Debtor-Clients. This is advantageous to Clients in the Attorneys' opinion because the Dowling case makes specific reference to creditor protection as a reason justifying either an advance payment retainer or classic retainer over a security retainer. Further, Attorneys' representation is time consuming and Attorney believes the initial retainer, and pre-petition, pre-filing retainer(s) will be earned quite easily and that the ultimate amount of legal fees will be in excess of the initial retainer and pre-filing, pre-petition retainer(s), which amount shall be credited against any amounts due at the termination or conclusion of this Agreement.

14. Accounting of Retainer. The Parties hereto understand and acknowledge that the amount of services to be provided by the Attorneys and the outcome of the representation are extremely difficult to predict as professional fees charged reflect a number of factors, including the number of attorney and non attorney hours incurred, the relative experience of the attorney(s) or staff member performing the services, the difficulty of the matter, and the results obtained for Client. The value of Attorneys' services in relation to this retainer includes extrinsic value and benefits that Client expressly agrees it is receiving by retaining Attorney. Attorney is not charging by the hour for the specific services defined in this Agreement, as the value of services is not determined by the hours or Attorneys' "time" but rather Client is paying for Attorneys' collective knowledge and expertise with the exact extrinsic value difficult to quantify. Therefore Client expressly waives any rights to any accounting or monthly billing of time by Attorney for any legal services included in the Retainer and Attorney will not be keeping records of time spent on this matter. No time sheet or accounting of time will be required or provided unless requested by the Bankruptcy Court while the case is pending before it. In the event of any fee dispute the hourly rates of Attorney, which are currently $425.00 per hour for Attorneys and $75.00 for paraprofessional time (i.e., paralegals, law clerks or legal assistants) billed in 6-minute minimum increments, will be applicable including any time spent related to any fee dispute. Post-Filing/Post-Petition the hourly rates will apply for any services not specified or included in this Agreement or for additional attorney services as specified in this Agreement.

15. Filing Fee. The Retainer does not include the $335.00 filing fee for a Chapter 7 (subject to change at anytime) or any costs, expenses or due diligence. The Filing Fee is not due until the petition is actually going to be filed and Client agrees to NOT pay that to Attorney in advance of filing or until told to do so by Attorney.

16. Client's Obligations to Pay Designated Costs, Fees, Expenses and Due Diligence. Client understands that in addition to any attorney fees that client is responsible for any and all reasonable costs associated with said representation and Attorneys due diligence. At Client's expense, Attorney is empowered to obtain information about Client's assets, credit, creditors, taxes, debts, income, expenses and other public and non-public information that may be used to verify and ensure the completeness of the information provided by Client as part of Attorney's due diligence and ordinary course of representation. Such information may not be comprehensive or complete. It is obtained for background information and to aid Attorney's due diligence. Attorney may order multiple due diligence products at its discretion as due diligence may be done when retained, before filing, any time in between, or as often as Attorney deems prudent as before filing some due diligence may have become stale. These costs, expenses and due diligence are not part of Attorney's overhead.

17. Disclaimer of Guarantee. (1) Nothing in this Agreement or any statements to Client will be construed as a promise or guarantee regarding the outcome of the Client's matter or chance for success and no guarantee as to specific results has been given to Client, with any express or implied comments about specific results or potential outcome of matters pertaining to Client are expressions of opinion only and do not create or imply a promise, warranty, representation, guarantee, as to a specific outcome on Client's matter. (2) Attorney has not made any promise or guarantee to "save" any real property of Client, or that a cause of action against any creditor or lender exists or would result in any creditor or lender's agreement to change, modify, or restructure any loan terms or reduce any negative equity in real property; (3) Bankruptcy proceedings are uncertain and include the possible liquidation or loss of property; (4) Client understands that bankruptcy law is subject to different interpretations, and that there are inherent risks in how Courts will apply various interpretations and changes in the laws occur as well as unknown factors that may alter the outcome or results; (5) Since approval and granting of a discharge requires court approval and may require consent of the chapter 7 trustee and creditors, and subject to any adversary proceedings contesting discharge, no guarantees or representations are made as to whether any such approvals will or can be obtained or that client will obtain any applicable discharge under any chapter of the USBC; (6) Client acknowledges there is NO GUARANTEE to the successful filing of a petition for relief under any chapter of the USBC, confirmation of any plan of reorganization, or the defense of any motion to dismiss, modify the automatic stay, adversary proceeding or contested matter, and that there are, in fact, significant risks if a Standing Trustee, U.S. Attorney/Trustee or Creditor prevails in any action; & (7) Attorney makes no guarantee that Client will be eligible and qualify to file a petition for relief under any certain chapter of the USBC now or in the future.

18. Dishonored Payments. Attorney will charge Client $40.00 on all dishonored checks or payments dishonored, returned NSF, insufficient funds or Account Closed, Payment Stopped, Payment Reversed or Charged Back, Unauthorized, declared delinquent card, and the like. Client will pay will pay all fees/charges associated with collection, of said dishonored checks/payments. If Client issues a check to Attorney that is not honored for any reason, or debit or credit card is declined, dishonored, reversed or charged back and any dishonored payment is not immediately resolved by Client, this agreement will be deemed concluded and Client's file closed automatically with no further notice required to be given by Attorney to Client.

19. File Destruction. Client hereby authorizes the secure destruction of your file five (5) years of the completion of the Client's bankruptcy case (after date of discharge or case closing, whichever is later, and agree that in any event Attorney shall have no liability for destroying any records, documents, or exhibits still in Attorney's possession at the end of five years. Attorney may keep an electronic copy of the file, which will serve as original for any related time frames that may require Attorney to keep the file longer. Client acknowledges client only provided copies and not original bills or documentation to Attorney and only copies shall be provided. Client acknowledges Attorney shall immediately shred for their privacy any bills and documentation provided to Law Firm after review, and shall not be returned to client.

20. Effective Date. The representation covered by this Agreement commences only upon the receipt by Attorney of a signed Agreement and payment of the Retainer.

21. Time Is Of The Essence. Any delay on Client's part may disqualify Client for Chapter 7 relief or otherwise adversely affect client's case. Attorney may not be able to file the case or take other necessary actions, until all requested documents and/or information, including but not limited to the certificate of credit counseling, are received by Attorney along with all required attorney fees, costs and filing fee.

22. Credit Counseling Course. Clients are advised that before Attorney can file the petition they must provide from a credit-counseling certificate from an approved non-profit budget and credit counseling agency (approved by U.S. Trustee's office) dated within 180 days prior to filing a bankruptcy petition. This can be taken online or by telephone and Attorney can assist in instructing Client. Client is advised to take this course when the Petition is close to being filed to avoid having to retake this course, which may have to be paid for again by Client.

23. Post Filing Course. Client must complete a financial management "pre-discharge" course (debtor education course) right after filing (and in addition to the credit counseling course) and obtain a certificate of completion along with a form B-23 which they must sign acknowledging THEY completed the course and it is solely their responsibility to complete the course, SIGN the B-23 and get the SIGNED B-23 to Attorney so Attorney may file it with the clerk as it must be filed with the Clerk's office on behalf of Client within 45 days of the ORIGINAL meeting of creditors (no extensions for continued meetings). If this is not done the Court may CLOSE the case WITHOUT discharge. Then to obtain a discharge a motion to re-open and permission granted to file an executed B-23 and certificate (assuming clients have done it) will be required and, should Attorney perform such there will be ADDITIONAL attorney fee charges determined by Attorney that must be paid in advance by clients in order to have Attorney so file this any court costs (currently $260).

24. Copies: A copy, facsimile, electronically signed or other reproduction or copy of this agreement, including any signatures (electronic or otherwise), shall have the same force and effect as the original and be deemed to be an original for all lawfully enforceable purposes and shall have the same force and effect as an original.

25. IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT ANY DOCUMENT, PAPERS OR THE LIKE, THAT CLIENT FORWARDS TO ATTORNEY WILL NOT BE RETURNED AND ATTORNEY MAY DESTROY, SCAN AND SHRED AT ANYTIME AND AT ATTORNEYS SOLE DISCRETION.

The balance of the legal fees may be paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

$	598	.00	Pre-Petition, Pre-Filing Retainer Fee due in full within the payment term per this Agreement before filing a petition (not including filing fee, due diligence or other costs/expenses as stated in this Agreement)

INITIAL CONSULTATION AGREEMENT AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RECEIPT OF DISCLOSURES

This agreement is entered into on this day of 2017, by and between _____, and Affordable Legal Services (referred to as "Law Firm").

1. I (We) have requested a consultation with the Attorney to obtain information and advice about debt issues and relief from debt, including the possibility of filing bankruptcy under the federal Bankruptcy Code. The Attorney agrees to provide an initial consultation concerning these matters. There is no charge for this initial consultation.

2. The Law Firm agrees to provide the following services at the initial consultation, based on the information I (we) have provided:

(a) Analyze my (our) financial circumstances and advise me (us) of possible bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy options for responding to my (our) financial problems. I (We) understand that this analysis is only preliminary, because the Law Firm does not have all of the information and documents that will be required to fully evaluate my (our) situation.

(b) Describe the potential benefits and the disadvantages of filing bankruptcy, and explain the relief available under chapters 7, 11, 12 and 13 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(c) Advise me (us) of the requirements, obligations and costs for filing a chapter 7 or 13 bankruptcy.

(d) Inform me (us) of the additional information that I (we) will need to provide to enable the Law Firm to more fully advise me (us) of my (our) potential options and legal rights.

3. I (We) agree to provide at the initial consultation information and documents, if any, concerning my (our) income, expenses, assets, and liabilities. I (We) understand that in order for the Law Firm to give meaningful advice, detailed financial information must be provided completely and accurately.

4. The Law Firm will provide at this time only the services specifically stated in this Agreement. If I (we) retain the Law Firm to represent me (us) and provide additional services, including the filing of bankruptcy or other bankruptcy assistance, I (we) and the Law Firm will sign a separate retainer agreement detailing the services and their cost, and the other terms of such representation.

STATEMENT OF INFORMATION REQUIRED BY 11 U.S.C. §341

INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to the Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1994, the Office of the United States Trustee, United States Department of Justice, has prepared this information sheet to help you understand some of the possible consequences of filing a bankruptcy petition under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This information is intended to make you aware of:

- (1) the potential consequences of seeking a discharge in bankruptcy, including the effects on credit history;
- (2) the effect of receiving a discharge of debts;
- (3) the effect of reaffirming a debt; and
- (4) your ability to file a petition under a different chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

There are many other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code that may affect your situation. This information sheet contains only general principles of law and is not a substitute for legal advice. If you have questions or need further information as to how the bankruptcy laws apply in your specific case, you should consult with your lawyer.

WHAT IS A DISCHARGE?

The filing of a chapter 7 petition is designed to result in a discharge of most of the debts you listed on your bankruptcy schedules. A discharge is a court order that says you do not have to repay your debts, but there are a number of exceptions. Debts which may not be discharged in your chapter 7 case include, for example, most taxes, child support, alimony, and student loans, court-ordered fines and restitution, debts obtained through fraud or deception, and personal injury debts caused by driving while intoxicated or taking drugs. Your discharge may be denied entirely if you, for example, destroy or conceal property, destroy, conceal or falsify records, or make a false oath. Creditors cannot ask you to pay any debts which have been discharged. You can only receive a chapter 7 discharge once every eight (8) years.

WHAT ARE THE POTENTIAL EFFECTS OF A DISCHARGE?

The fact that you filed bankruptcy can appear on your credit report for as long as 10 years. Thus, filing a bankruptcy petition may affect your ability to obtain credit in the future. Also, you may not be excused from repaying any debts that were not listed on your bankruptcy schedules or that you incurred after you filed for bankruptcy.

WHAT ARE THE EFFECTS OF REAFFIRMING A DEBT?

After you file your petition, a creditor may ask you to reaffirm a certain debt or you may seek to do so on your own. Reaffirming a debt means that you sign and file with the court a legally enforceable document, which states that you promise to repay all or a portion of the debt that may otherwise have been discharged in your bankruptcy case. Reaffirmation agreements must generally be filed with the court within 60 days after the first meeting of the creditors.

Reaffirmation agreements are strictly voluntary — they are not required by the Bankruptcy Code or other state or federal law. You can voluntarily repay any debt instead of signing a reaffirmation agreement, but there may be valid reasons for wanting to reaffirm a particular debt.

Reaffirmation agreements must not impose an undue burden on you or your dependents and must be in your best interest. If you decide to sign a reaffirmation agreement, you may cancel it at any time before the court causes your discharge order to be entered within sixty (60) days after the reaffirmation agreement was filed with the court, whichever is later. If you reaffirm a debt and fail to make the payments required in the reaffirmation agreement, the creditor can take action against you to recover any property that was given as security for the loan and you may remain personally liable for any remaining debt.

OTHER BANKRUPTCY OPTIONS

You have a choice in deciding what chapter of the Bankruptcy Code will best suit your needs. Even if you have already filed for relief under chapter 7, you may be eligible to convert your case to a different chapter.

Chapter 7 is the liquidation chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Under chapter 7, a trustee is appointed to collect and sell, if economically feasible, all property you own that is not exempt from these actions.

Chapter 11 is the reorganization chapter most commonly used by businesses, but it is also available to individuals. Creditors vote on whether to accept or reject a plan, which also must be approved by the court. While the debtor normally remains in control of the assets, the court can order the appointment of a trustee to take possession and control of the business.

Chapter 12 offers bankruptcy relief to those who qualify as family farmers. Family farmers must propose a plan to repay their creditors over a three-to-five year period and it must be approved by the court. Plan payments are made through a chapter 12 trustee, who also monitors the debtor's farming operations during the pendency of the plan.

Finally, chapter 13 generally permits individuals to keep their property by repaying creditors out of their future income. Each chapter 13 debtor writes a plan which must be approved by the bankruptcy court. The debtor must pay the chapter 13 trustee the amounts set forth in their plan. Debtors receive a discharge after they complete their chapter 13 repayment plan. Chapter 13 is only available to individuals with regular income whose debts do not exceed $1,000,000 ($250,000 in unsecured debts and $750,000 in secured debts).

AGAIN, PLEASE SPEAK TO YOUR LAWYER IF YOU NEED FURTHER INFORMATION OR EXPLANATION, INCLUDING HOW THE BANKRUPTCY LAWS RELATE TO YOUR SPECIFIC CASE. I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

B201A (form 201A) (11/11) In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(b) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $46 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge; Total Fee $306)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $46 administrative fee; Total fee $281)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1000 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $1046)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($208 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $254)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bk/forms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a 'trustee' and by creditors.

If you choose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file a Chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your Chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.

Disclosure Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 527(a)(2) of Bankruptcy Code

The purpose of this Notice and The Statement Mandated by Section 527(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which you have been provided as a separate document, are to make you aware of some of your obligation should you file bankruptcy.

Note: This Notice and the Statement are required by legislation adopted by the 2005 Congress. So long as you are honest and meet the requirements set out under the law you are entitled to debt relief. We can guide you through all the requirements of filing bankruptcy so long as you provide us accurate and complete information.

You are notified as follows:

1. All information that you are required to provide with your bankruptcy petition and thereafter in your case is required to be complete, accurate and truthful.
2. All your assets and all your liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence your case.
3. The value of each asset which is secured by a lien on such asset must be stated as the replacement value of such asset after reasonable inquiry to establish such value. The replacement value means the replacement value of the date of the filing of the bankruptcy petition without deduction for costs of sale or marketing. With respect to property acquired for personal, family or household purposes, replacement value means the price a retail merchant would charge for property of that kind considering the age and condition of the property at the time value as determined.
4. After reasonable inquiry you are required to state your current monthly income. Current monthly income is described on the attached of Terms and Definitions Addendum.
5. After reasonable inquiry you are required to state the amounts set out in section 707(b) (2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Those amounts are explained in the attached Terms and Definitions Addendum.
6. In a case under Chapter 13, after reasonable inquiry, you are required to state your disposable income determined in accordance with section 707(b) (2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Disposable income is explained on the attached addendum of Terms and Definitions.
7. Information that you provide during your case may be audited pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Your failure to provide accurate and complete information may result in dismissal of your case or other sanctions, including criminal sanctions.
8. Certain property you own is called "exempt property" and is not property of the Bankruptcy Estate. Exemptions are based upon either the Bankruptcy Code or State law. In the state of Illinois exemptions are determined by state statutory law and the Illinois Constitution. In order to avail yourself of the exemptions of the state of Illinois you must have continuously lived in the state of Illinois for the 180 days immediately preceding the filing of your petition.

I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.

SECURED PROPERTY DISCLOSURE

Secured property occurs when you make a purchase (car, electronics, furniture, jewelry, home, etc.) and the creditor/lender retains a secured lien interest in that property. This debt is secured by the property. If you fail to pay the secured debt the creditor will repossess the property, and sue you for the balance you owe, plus attorneys' fees, repossession costs, court costs, interest and penalties, etc. Bankruptcy does not wipe out/eliminate your secured debts. You cannot keep the secured property and not pay. This would be fraud and a crime. You must make a choice. Basically, you either timely continue to pay the secured debt/loan or you timely surrender the property back to the creditor/lender.

SURRENDER: You may surrender the item back to the secured creditor/lender in your bankruptcy case. If you choose to this you will no longer be required to make any payments on the loan/secured debt, and you will not be held responsible for repayment after your bankruptcy case is completed. If you choose to surrender the property, you must contact the creditor and make arrangements to drop off the property to them, on the date and time when the creditor can retrieve the property. You can not hide the secured debt and not report it or you will face additional fees and/or criminal actions against you.

RE-AFFIRMATION: What is a Reaffirmation Contract? We call it a Post-Bankruptcy contract. Before you filed BK, you signed a contract to legally obligate yourself to pay that debt. After you filed BK that contract is no longer fully valid. Your secured lender hired a Law Firm to prepare a contract for you to sign after you filed BK, called a "Reaffirmation Contract". Once you sign their legal contract, you are legally bound (obligated) to pay the entire debt, and agreeing to the terms of their contract, allowing them to repossess, charge interest, penalties, and sue you if you ever become late with a payment. If you default on a payment, the creditor can repossess the property and sue you for the balance due on the loan. You have 60 days after you sign the reaffirmation contract to change your mind by "re-winding" the contract. You (not your attorney) can only rescind by sending your rescinding letter by certified mail to the creditor, their attorney, and filing it with the Bankruptcy Court, before 60 days pass of signing contract. If you wish to sign the reaffirmation contract to reaffirm the debt, you will be required to attend a court hearing to have the contract approved by the court. Pursuant to your contract, we do not represent you at this hearing. The judge will determine whether this debt will cause you and your family a financial hardship, whether you can afford the debt, whether it is in your best interest, and the best interest of your family. We do not believe you can afford the debt, nor that reaffirming the debt is in your best interests and that it will cause you financial hardship, therefore we will not sign it stating that it is in your "financial best interests." If we receive a reaffirmation from a secured lender(s) we will forward it to you. However, it is up to you to contact your secured lender promptly after your BK is filed and ask them to provide you with a reaffirmation contract. By signing the reaffirmation contract, you will have to timely provide the contract to the secured creditor and deal directly with them and attend all court hearings with regard to the secured debt.

REPOSSESSION: Signing a reaffirmation contract does not prevent your vehicle from being repossessed. Your secured debt will be repossessed, if you your payments are not current during your BK are current, you fail to provide proof of insurance to the lender, and that you failed to timely provide the lender the signed and completed reaffirmation contract. So long as the payments are made, the creditor should not repossess the property. If the property is repossessed, you will not be held responsible for the balance, however you will not receive any refund for the money you already paid for the vehicle or secured property.

MOTION TO LIFT STAY: The first step in starting the repossession process against you. This Motion allows creditor to continue their State Court Action which was stayed, in order to obtain (repossess) the secured property that you are late on your payments, etc. If you are late on your payments, failed to provide the secured lender your proof of insurance, failed to sign their reaffirmation contract, or stated your intent to surrender the property, etc. the secured lender hired a Law Firm to file a motion to lift stay. If the Stay means the Secured Lender's Law Firm appears in court to ask BK judge to allow them permission to proceed against you to repossess and re-take possession of your vehicle if you are late on your vehicle or other secured property payments. If you are late on your payments, these Motions are most often granted as a matter of right to Judge's Chambers, so you will not need to attend the hearing. If you do not want them to repossess the vehicle or other secured property contact your secured lender and provide them the current default payments and insurance and reaffirmation contract. This may not alleviate the repossession, however they may be willing to work with you. Pursuant to contract we do not represent you for any Motion to Lift Stay. If you wish we attend the court hearing on your behalf you will need to come in and sign release and pay a court appearance fee.

Remember you cannot keep the property without paying! Financially the best solution may be to surrender the vehicle/property.

If you to keep the secured property, you must do the following:

1. Immediately after the filing of your BK, contact your secured lender and inform them you want to keep the secured debt,
2. Provide the secured lender your payment for your overdue balance, plus interest, attorneys fees, court fees, interest, etc. on (some current),
3. Ask them to mail you their reaffirmation contract to sign, and
4. Provide the secured lender your signed reaffirmation contract making you legally liable for any future late, attorneys, interest, court, interest fees, etc.
5. You must remain current with your monthly payments throughout your BK.
6. You must provide the secured lender proof you have insurance if a vehicle or home, etc.

If you wish to surrender, Contact your secured lender immediately after the filing of your BK and inform them you wish to surrender and return the property back to them. Set up a date and time and surrender the property. Take photos of the property to show you did not damage the property, and a copy of your insurance on the property.

As you are aware, you are required to attend all State Court hearings. You must attend all court notices/hearing State, Federal, Criminal, etc. otherwise you will be held in contempt of court, you will be arrested, and will have to pay a fine and go to jail.

REDEMPTION LUMP SUM: You may contact the secured creditor for/for them a reasonable lump sum payment for the property to wipe out the lien. If the creditor accepts your offer, you must promptly pay the creditor the lump sum to keep the property. Try this if you have electronics, jewelry, or smaller secured debt items.

REDEMPTION 722 (CAR ONLY): If you don't have a lump sum, you may contact a Redemption company. A company may help you qualify to keep your car and have your car payments reduced significantly. If you qualify and choose to redeem, they will finance our attorneys' fees into the settlement for hourly fee in default, file, and argue before the court the necessary motions with the bankruptcy court. If you qualify for one of these programs you must timely inform the secured lender and inform our law firm by email that you qualify.

CONTINUE PAYING: If you continue making payments on your secured loans hoping your creditors will not try to repossess the property, even if you are current on your payments, creditor may still repossess the property because you failed to provide them your proof of insurance or did not timely provide them your signed reaffirmation contract.

PRIOR TO FILING WE REQUIRE YOUR DECISION ON YOUR STATEMENT OF INTENTION YOUR CHOICE OF SURRENDER, REDEMPTION, AND REAFFIRMATION IF YOU FAIL TO PROVIDE US YOUR SIGNED STATEMENT OF INTENTION, THE CREDITOR IS PERMITTED TO REPOSSESS THE PROPERTY.

I (We), the debtor(s), affirm that I (we) have received and read this notice and agree to be bound to its terms.
